literature raises the standard of

With Lee in Virginia by Henty

American citizenship. The present

For the children—Jungle Stories, Water Babies

is an age of experiment and investigation

Tanglewood Tales, 25c

The Student of literature finds himself

Through the Looking Glass

better equipped to grapple with the

Tennyson's Poems—"The morning Arises Stormy and Pale"

problems of life.

Burns said—Pleasure are like poppies spread,

You seize the flower, its bloom is shed;

Or like the snowfall in the river

A moment white—then melts forever.

Not so with the reading of good literature—a lasting impression is the result.

Longfellow's Tales of a Wayside Inn—

One Autumn night in Sudbury town

Across the meadows bare and brown

The windows of the wayside inn

Gleamed red with fire—

Light through the leaves.

SOCIAL

Local Elks will graze in the Bohemian pastures tonight following a session of Clarksburg lodge, which will be held in the lodge hall on Third street, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. At the close of the lodge session the Elks will march in a procession to the Waldo hotel in the dining hall of which an elegant banquet and a social session will be held. The banquet is given complimentary to the class of candidates initiated by the lodge last Tuesday night. An orchestra will furnish music for the occasion and there will be vocal music, impersonations and other entertaining features.

Congratulations are due the ladies of Goff Methodist church over the brilliant success of the double reception given last night at the church in honor of the retiring pastor and his wife and the new pastor and his wife. It was a farewell to the Rev. and Mrs. S. K. Arbuthnot and a welcome to the Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Bird.

The decorations were very pretty, the national flag being much in evidence as well as many flowers of the season and the effects were inspiring. In the receiving line were the Revs. R. B. McDanel, L. E. Peters, H. G. Richardson, and W. M. Long, all of this city, and the Rev. J. E. Scott, of Adamston, besides the Rev. Messrs. Arbuthnot and Bird.

From 8 to 10, the reception hours, many people called to greet the new pastor and to say goodbye to the retiring one. The welcome to the new one was most cordial and a feeling farewell was expressed to the retiring one, with best wishes for him and his family in their new field at Wheeling.

After the reception ice cream, cake and coffee were served in a graceful and generous manner by a committee of ladies. L. K. Richards presided and in a very clever speech presented Dr. Arbuthnot a handsome carving set in a case and to Mrs. Arbuthnot an elegant silver tea set, gifts by the church as tokens of the high esteem the congregation has of its former pastor and his wife.

Dr. Arbuthnot accepted the gifts for himself and Mrs. Arbuthnot in a very nice speech expressing their gratitude and appreciation, after which the new pastor, the Rev. J. E. Bird, and other ministers present made short speeches.

Miss Bessie Swiger and Mr. Geo. Davison, prominent young people of Northview, made a quiet visit to Oakland, and, while there, were united in marriage to the surprise of their friends. Mr. Davison is a young business man and his bride is a popular lady.

When their friends went to serenade them, Mr. Davison slipped out of the house. Best wishes are extended to the young couple.

The Tuesday Club held a very instructive meeting at the home of Mrs. John J. Davis this afternoon and rendered the program as published yesterday in the Telegram. Mrs. Davis a pleasing hostess and the session was all that could be desired from the viewpoints of the work of the club and entertainment by the hostess. The next meeting of the Club will be held at the home of Miss Etta McKeehan on Mulberry street November 12.

G. H. Gordon, Samuel Bowman W. P. Vincent and T. P. Williams attended the Masonic lodge meeting and banquet at Salem Monday evening and had a delightful time. Salem lodge conferred degrees upon a number of candidates and the banquet was held after the lodge session. There was a big turn out of Masons.

Miss Cora Smith, assisted by her pupils will give a recital in the assembly room of the Waldo on Friday evening, Nov. 15. The proceeds of the recital will be given for the benefit of the new Goff M. E. church.

Mr. Carlos O. Smith, of Wallace, and Miss Laura E. Smith, of Mannington, were married at the latter's home Monday night. They will reside at Wallace, where the bridegroom is in business.

The meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Card Club at the home of Mrs. Peter Hanson Koblegard announced for Thursday afternoon has been postponed until Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Watch the Globe Clothing Store window for the 103 pieces of china and a china closet to be given away free.

Anchor

Pure White Lead

is worth $7.50 to $8.00 per hundred pounds. One hundred pounds of barytes or silica is worth 65 cents.

Paint Buyers

who accept 65-cent barytes or silica and pay $8.00 (the price of White Lead) for it, or who pay even half the price of White Lead, could hardly be called shrewd buyers.

That is the "bargain" which the buyer of "graded" or so-called "cheap" lead makes.

When in need of paint, buy PURE WHITE LEAD. The Best Boy Painted on the keg is your guaranty.
